

From the Pastor

Two Sundays ago, Jesus referred to us as his sheep with him as the Shepherd. Last Sunday, he said, "I am the vine, you are the branches." Today he refers to us as his friends. "I no longer call you slaves..I have called you friends."

In all images, a personal, intimate relationship is implied. "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me." "A branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine." "I have told you everything I have heard from my Father."

From this we see that Christianity is not a set of doctrines to be believed or a set of rules to be followed, but a relationship with a person – Christ, who is the revelation of God. And since God is love, it follows that to be related, to be connected with him, is to have love; it is to love.

As we find in the 2nd reading, "Let us love one another because love is of God; whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love." As Jesus said, "You are my friends if you do what I command you: love one another."

What does love look like? St. Augustine has a very beautiful, practical answer. "Love has hands to help others. It has feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of others. That's what love looks like."

A little boy was selling fruits and candies in a busy train station and was accidentally bumped by the rushing crowd, knocking oranges, apples and candies in every direction. A young man saw the boy's distress and began picking up the fruits and candies. As he placed the last fruit into the basket, he put a silver dollar in the boy's hand and with a smile, went on his way. "Hey, mister," called the little boy, "Are you Jesus?" "No," the young man replied, "I'm his friend."

Indeed Christianity is friendship with God, a friendship that is personal, intimate, living and active. It is to be friends of Jesus – conversing with him (in prayer), enlightened by him (his words), strengthened by him (the Eucharist), and hanging out with him and his friends (the community). It is to bring him to others and invite them to his friendship.

Are you a friend of Jesus?

Your brother and friend,
Fr. Roland

A little tickler

On their 50th anniversary the wife complained, "You never tell me that you love me." The old husband replied, "I told you I loved you on our wedding day, didn't I? Well, if I ever change my mind, I'll let you know."

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Del Pastor

Hace dos domingos, Jesús se refirió a nosotros como su oveja y él como el Pastor. El domingo pasado, dijo: "Yo soy la vid, ustedes son el sarmiento." Hoy se refiere a nosotros como sus amigos. "Ya no los llamo esclavos ... los he llamado amigos."

En todas las imágenes, se implica una relación personal e íntima. "Yo soy el buen pastor, yo conozco a mis ovejas y ellas me conocen a mí." "El sarmiento no puede dar fruto por sí misma a menos que permanezca en la vid." "Te he dicho todo lo que he escuchado de mi Padre."

De esto vemos que el Cristianismo no es un conjunto de doctrinas para creer o un conjunto de reglas a seguir, sino una relación con una persona: Cristo, que es la revelación de Dios. Y dado que Dios es amor, se sigue que para estar relacionado, conectado con él, es tener amor; es amar.

Como lo encontramos en la segunda lectura, "amémonos unos a otros porque el amor es de Dios; el que no tiene amor no conoce a Dios, porque Dios es amor." Como dijo Jesús: "Ustedes son mis amigos si hacen lo que les ordeno: ámense los unos a los otros."

¿Cómo se ve el amor? San Agustín tiene una respuesta muy bella y práctica. "El amor tiene manos para ayudar a otros. Tiene pies para apresurarse a los pobres y necesitados. Tiene ojos para ver la miseria y el deseo. Tiene oídos para escuchar los suspiros y las tristezas de los demás. Así se ve el amor."

Un niño pequeño estaba vendiendo frutas y dulces en una concurrida estación de tren y fue golpeado accidentalmente por la multitud, las naranjas, manzanas y dulces cayeron en todas las direcciones. Un joven vio la angustia del niño y comenzó a recoger las frutas y los dulces. Mientras colocaba la última fruta en la canasta, puso un dólar de plata en la mano del niño y, con una sonrisa, siguió su camino. "Oye, señor", llamó el niño, "¿Eres Jesús?" "No", el joven respondió: "Soy su amigo."

De hecho, el Cristianismo es amistad con Dios, una amistad personal, íntima, viva y activa. Es ser amigos de Jesús - conversando con él (en oración), iluminado por él (sus palabras), fortalecido por él (la Eucaristía), y saliendo con él y sus amigos (la comunidad). Es para llevarlo a los demás e invitarlos a su amistad.

¿Eres tú amigo de Jesús?

Tu hermano y amigo,
Padre Rolando

Una Cosquillita

En su 50 aniversario, la esposa se quejó: "Nunca me dices que me amas." El viejo esposo respondió: "Te dije que te amaba el día de nuestra boda, ¿no es así? Bueno, si alguna vez cambio de opinión, te lo haré saber."
